POLICY SUBJECT:  Educational Assistance Program	RESPONSIBLE DEPARTMENT:  Human Resources

A. PURPOSE:

This policy establishes the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission's (Commission) Educational Assistance Program to provide financial assistance to employees for Post-Secondary Education Programs. The Educational Assistance Program provides for Tuition Reimbursement to employees who successfully complete an approved educational course in support of their professional and personal self-development goals. The Educational Assistance Program also provides for Student Loan Debt Reimbursement in accordance with, and during the duration of, the Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act (2020), and the Coronavirus Response and Consolidated Appropriations Act (2021) (collectively the "CARES Act").

B. SCOPE:

This policy letter applies to all full-time Commission employees who have at least 6 months of service and have successfully completed their probationary/introductory period.

C. GENERAL POLICY:

Employees may receive up to $5,250 under the Educational Assistance Program per calendar year. This amount includes any Tuition Reimbursement and Student Loan Debt Reimbursement payments. Employees may not receive Student Loan Debt Reimbursement for expenses they previously received through the Commission's Tuition Reimbursement Program. Although these payments are not subject to federal taxes, they may be subject to state and local taxes. Employees receiving Tuition Reimbursement and Student Loan Debt Reimbursement payments are responsible for making appropriate payroll withholding adjustments, if desired, and for settling any tax liability on year-end tax filing.

Total payments an employee receives under the Educational Assistance Program (regardless of whether they are in the form of Tuition Reimbursement, Student Loan Debt Reimbursement, or both) will cap at $21,000 per employee for the entirety of their employment.

If any provision of this policy is inconsistent with the terms of a Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA), the terms of the CBA shall control.

Tuition Reimbursement

The Commission may, at its sole discretion, provide Tuition Reimbursement to eligible employees for approved education courses. Employees are required to schedule courses/programs during non-work hours. Coursework may be completed through traditional courses or through non-traditional programs such distance-learning programs. Ongoing participation in the Tuition Reimbursement program is contingent on an employee's continued proficient job performance. To receive Tuition Reimbursement, the following conditions apply:

- a. The employee must obtain approval to attend the educational course from their immediate supervisor, Department Head (DH) and Human Resources (HR) prior to starting the course/program.
- b. The course must not be available through In-service Training programs at the Commission. The employee can be reimbursed at 100% for tuition, registration, course related fees, and books that were required for the course(s) that began after the Revised Date of this policy.
- c. Reimbursable costs shall not include tools and supplies that may aid the employee with the course (e.g., computer hardware, software, calculators, instructional tapes), parking fees, transportation, or other optional expenses.
- d. Course(s) must be taken at an Eligible Education Institution.
- e. The employee must Successfully Complete the course to be eligible for reimbursement.
- f. An employee will not be eligible for reimbursement if they withdraw from an approved course or if the approved course is canceled. The employee is required to immediately notify their DH and HR if they withdraw from an approved course, they do not get an acceptable passing grade on a course, or if the course is canceled.

Student Loan Debt

The Commission may, at its sole discretion, allow for Student Loan Debt to be included under the Educational Assistance Program for the duration of the CARES Act. Reimbursement can be made for Student Loan Debt that has already been paid by the employee for Post-Secondary Education Programs. The following conditions shall apply to Student Loan Debt paid during the eligible dates of the CARES Act:

- a. The employee must provide documentation to support their request for reimbursement for a qualified educational program.
- b. The reimbursement must be for a Qualified Education Loan that is in the employee's name. It will not cover loans such as Parent Plus loans that were obtained for the employee.
- c. Employees are only eligible for their own student loan debt relief. They cannot be reimbursed for dependent or spousal education costs.
- d. Employees must provide documentation to support the payments they have made to their lender. Employees can be reimbursed for interest and principal payments that were already paid during the eligible dates of the CARES Act.
- e. The employee's loan payments must have been made to the student loan servicer between the eligible dates of the CARES Act.

- f. Employees can submit for reimbursement for payments made in previous calendar years (dating back to the implementation of the CARES Act on March 27, 2020) but cannot receive more than $5,250 per calendar year in payments for the Student Loan Debt Reimbursement and/or Tuition Reimbursement programs combined.
- g. Employees who are enrolled in Public Service Loan Forgiveness are eligible to receive Student Loan Debt Reimbursement under this program until they meet their forgiveness requirements.

D. DEFINITIONS:

CARES Act – The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security Act was signed into law on March 27, 2020 and expanded upon by the Coronavirus Response and Consolidated Appropriations Act, which was signed into law on December 27, 2020. These laws permit employers to provide up to $5,250 per year in pre-tax benefits to employees to help pay for their student loans.

Department Head (DH) – The Chief or Director whose position is graded at the highest level over an entire department.

Educational Assistance Program – An employee benefit in which an employer pays towards an employee's educational expenses.

Eligible Education Institution – A college, university, vocational school or other post-secondary educational institution that is accredited and participates in a federal financial aid program under title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965 or is certified by the Department of Education as eligible to participate in a federal financial aid program but chooses not to participate.

In-Service Training – Courses, training sessions, conferences, seminars, workshops, and distance learning programs that are sponsored by the Commission.

Post-Secondary Education – Courses taken at accredited colleges, universities, vocational, and/or trade schools.

Public Service Loan Forgiveness (PSLF) – A federal loan forgiveness program established as part of the College Cost Reduction and Access Act of 2007. Under PSLF, eligible borrowers who work full-time for nonprofit organizations or federal, state, local or tribal governments can get loan forgiveness after making 120 qualifying monthly payments.

Qualified Education Loan – A loan taken out solely to pay qualified Post-Secondary Education expenses for yourself as defined by the IRS standards. Under Section 127 of the CARES Act private student loans are eligible when they are obtained through a private student loan servicer. Loans from family members such as Parent Plus loans are not included in the definition of Qualified Education Loan.

Successfully Complete – Receiving an acceptable grade in a course, as follows:

- a “C” letter grade or higher,
- a 2.00 grade point average or higher on a 4.00 system,
- a “Pass” grade on a “Pass/Fail” grading system, or
- a “B” letter grade or higher for graduate-level courses or equivalent

Student Loan Debt Reimbursement – Reimbursement of student debt federal tax-free for Post-Secondary Education Programs where payments have already been made to the lender between March 27, 2020, and December 31, 2025, or any extension modification made by law.

Tuition Reimbursement – Reimbursement of a portion, or all of the employee's tuition costs by the Commission.

E. PROCEDURES:

Tuition Reimbursement

a. Approval

1. Employees must complete a Tuition Reimbursement Request form prior to attending the course. Forms can be found in Service Now or paper forms may be printed off the Employee Portal. Employees must attach the required supporting documentation.
2. The supervisor shall review the request and make a recommendation to the DH or their designee for approval/disapproval. The DH shall approve or disapprove the recommendation and forward the request to HR.
3. HR will approve or deny the request and notify the DH, supervisor, and the employee of the decision.

b. Reimbursement

1. Once a course is complete, the employee must provide verification to HR within 90 days of completion that the course meets the definition of Successfully Complete. Reimbursement will not be made for requests received beyond the 90-day time limit.
2. Acceptable forms of verification include:
  - a. The grade report or signed verification from the institution,
  - b. A valid license or certificate, or
  - c. The official transcript from the institution showing the grade.
